

Week 7: Homework

I will put together a formal mindfulness program and practice it at home every day for the coming week. The program consists of: some physical exercises, at least one breathing exercise and a meditation.

From the informal exercises, I will practice these the following week:
